WELCOME HOME. This Muskoka Waterways bungalow freehold townhome has a common element package that takes away all your worries so you can enjoy your life. Common elements include snow removal to the front porch, grass and weed maintenance, private garbage collection, visitor parking and the open common area at the Muskoka River waterfront. The location of this unit is on a lightly travelled dead-end street only a few doors away from neighbouring Annie Williams Beach and Dog Park. Downtown Bracebridge is just a short walk to several restaurants, pubs, shopping, a library and a movie theatre. Just a short drive, you will find several more restaurants, golf courses and the Renne M. Caisse Memorial Theatre. This spacious home with a covered porch and large deck offers almost 1,500 square feet of open-concept living space plus a finished basement that you can furnish your way, depending on your family's needs. The kitchen and counter seating are open to the great room that boasts floor-to-ceiling windows up to the top of the vaulted ceilings and includes custom window shades for privacy. The primary bedroom offers a generous walk-in closet, an ensuite with a luxurious corner soaker tub, and a
