Looking for an amazing Airbnb property with privacy and acreage? This spectacular island property has beautiful walking trails where you can absorb the aroma of the pine forest. Look up at the majestic pines towering above - HUGE trees! There are two rustic cottages on opposite sides of the island. With gorgeous hard-sand bottom beaches - you can walk in the water from the east to the west sides around the south end all on sand bottom. This beautiful property offers 3.8 acres & 1856 feet of water frontage & needs to be walked to be appreciated. Well-worn trails link the main areas. The main log cottage has a large living room with wood stove, kitchen, two bedrooms and a full washroom. The small cottage has one bedroom and a large veranda overlooking the west, which is currently used as a large second bedroom. The whole island is easily accessed via a short paddle or row from the mainland dock, where there is parking for two cars on North Bay Lake Rd. A large shed beside the main cottage can store all of your outdoor belongings or convert to a recreation building. With quick access from Hwy 11 in Emsdale you are only minutes from Huntsville with all the amenities the town offers. Bucktooth Island is a summer and
