Wonderful opportunities exist with this beautiful property on Moore Lake. This almost 2 acre property with over 600ft. of water frontage is quite level with just a small drop near the waters edge. It offers many great building sites that would provide a fantastic view over the lake. Well treed and very private, it would be the ideal location to build your dream cottage. The lake offers great fishing opportunities is perfect for enjoying all the typical watersports. Located at the southern end of Haliburton County, it is within a comfortable drive time of the GTA and hydro service is nearby along the road. This is a chance to turn your dreams in to a reality.
