Discover the charm of this stunning backsplit home in Collingwood, featuring an open concept living space with fresh paint and new flooring throughout the main floor and basement. The completely renovated kitchen boasts a beautiful island with electrical outlets, new cabinets, a farmhouse sink, a stylish backsplash, and modern appliances, including a plumbed-in fridge. Adjacent to the kitchen, you'll find a cozy coffee bar with solid wood floating shelves. The basement is an entertainer's delight with a coffered ceiling, recessed lighting, an electric fireplace wall, and a wine wall with a double door wine and beverage fridge. Each bedroom features accent walls or wainscotting, added stair railings, modern door hardware, and brand-new light fixtures or ceiling fans. Featuring a brand new A/C unit installed in 2023 and updated windows from 2018, this property offers modern amenities and energy efficiency. An extra-large crawl space provides ample storage, while the oversized shed includes a finished, heated, and electrically equipped space, ideal for a home office. This home beautifully blends contemporary upgrades with charm, making it the perfect place to call home. (id:50245)
